IN THE HEART OF THE MIDWEST

THE 2020 CATALOG
The late John H. Blair moved to Camdenton, Missouri in 1930 to supervise the construction of a highway system that would run through the newly created Lake of the Ozarks. Deciding to make Camdenton their home, the Blairs purchased land and built the Blair Hotel and Cafe in Camdenton’s square, where he constructed all of the establishment’s cedar tables and chairs using only hand tools. Soon after, he began turning out small cedar novelties to sell in his cafe, and before he knew it, his hobby would become a full-grown factory and the heartbeat of the new community.

Following World War 2, Mr. Blair sold the hotel to concentrate on his new, successful business venture of making salt and pepper shakers and other cedar novelties. Due to the scarcity of gasoline during the war, a mail order business was introduced and the slogan, “From the log to you” was introduced and the name Blair Cedar would become well-known in the surrounding areas.

Because of its distinct aroma, the Blair’s labeled their product “Cedaroma” - a name that became, and still remains, the company’s trademark. By the late forties, the business had moved to it’s current location. The younger sons, whose job had once been to sit on the posts while their father carved cedar products, were now involved in specific jobs throughout the plant.

Over the years, Blair Cedar’s sales have increased and salesmen still travel all over the United States selling cedar souvenirs and novelties. Blair Cedar’s items are exhibited at gift shows nationwide.

Blair Cedar is now a third generation company, led by John F. Blair. His younger brother, Matt Blair, is heavily involved in day-to-day operations and sales. They look to move Blair Cedar forward while holding onto and honoring the values and standards set forth by their father and grandfather.
